SEE WHAT PAST ATTENDEES HAD TO SAY...

- WOW! It is not often that I find a conference that keeps my total attention from start to finish. I came to this conference as a skeptic. But I really enjoyed it, and I look forward to using what I learned in my practice. - Cynthia Johnson
- Learned wonderful/innovative techniques to add to my practice. - Denise Brown
- A great personal and professional learning experience! Truly a working vacation...knowledge and pleasure. This was a wonderful experience! I will change my anesthesia practice (improvement) & help improve the lives of my family & friends. Thank you. - Norma Nixon
- I came to the course because of the location and my family. I wouldn't tell people about the course content. I will now preach the benefit of hypnosis and the relation process. - C. Picette
- Awesome! I've been a nurse 2 years and the background I learned will be very helpful in my practice. - Sandra Fairchild
- Really enjoyed the course and the setting, well presented, excellent topics and speakers. Wish you would have started this course 15-20 years ago. - Oscar S. Houser
- Con as with all your programs I have attended my over all experience has been wonderful. Your presentations have been fun, very informative. And again will take home many of your pearls to aid me in my practice. Thank you again for a wonderful conference. - Donald W. Briant

MEET THE FACULTY:

Ron Eslinger, RN, CRNA, MA, APN, BCH, CMI, FNCH
 Captain, United States Navy, Retired--Owner Healthy Vision Wellness Center, Oak Ridge, TN, Past President of the American Association of Nurse Anesthetists, Past President of the National Association of Holistic Nurse Practitioners, Past President of the International Hypnosis Research Institute. Anationally recognized speaker and author. Ron is an internationally renowned lecturer and teacher to Nursing, Anesthesia, Medical and Hypnosis Organizations. He writes a monthly article on wellness for the Anderson County Visions Magazine and is published in a number of professional journals, books, CDs and DVDs.

Tim Brunson, Ph.D
 Dr. Brunson is a Doctor of Clinical Hypnotherapy, a Master Practitioner and a Certified Trainer in Neuro-Linguistic Programming, a forensic hypnotist, and certified in hypnoanesthesia. Additionally, he holds masters degrees in Business Administration, Public Administration, and Strategic Studies. He maintains a clinical practice in Anniston, Alabama. He also is the founder and Executive Director of the International Hypnosis Research Institute. The focus of his clinical practice is on working with refractory patients who have been diagnosed with Fibromyalgia, Irritable Bowel Syndrome, Lupus, Cancer, Repetitive Sleep Disorder, and other conditions where the mind affects the body.

In order to increasingly further his capabilities, he seeks training from multiple sources to include the National Association for the Clinical Applications of Behavioral Medicine, the American Board of Hypnotherapy, the American Board of NLP, the International Medical and Dental Hypnotherapy Association, the Association of Humanistic Psychology, and the American Academy of Pain Management. He has trained with several notable instructors such as Dr. Ernest Rossi, Dr. Tad James, Dr. Norm Shealy, Dr. Robert Dilts, Dr. Mark Wasburg, and Bill O'Hanlon. Additionally, as a part of his research into Eastern mind/body concepts he has received comprehensive training with several Tibetan dignitaries of both the Buddhist and Bon-po traditions. This has included public instruction given by Tenzin Gyatso, His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama.

For Dr. Brunson, watching individuals overcome mental and physiological limitations is a life-long passion. Through working with both individuals and groups as a trainer, he has watched many transformations right before his eyes. This has inspired him to write and teach at every opportunity. Never being satisfied with his current education and talents, he is constantly researching and exploring other opportunities to find new skills and technologies that will help people live the fullest lives possible.
